URBAN FAMILY COUNCIL SUPPORTS 35 YEARS OF HOPE

Philadelphia, PA- The annual Sanctity of Human Life Rally will be held at City Hall, Dilworth Plaza this Friday, January 18, 2008 at 12pm. Urban Family Council and other pro-life advocates come together at this time of year to mark the 35th anniversary of Roe v. Wade, the Supreme Court decision that legalized abortion in the United States on January 22, 1973. The rally is open to the public, and is an opportunity to give witness to and educate government officials, media, and the local community about the value of human life.

There will be several powerful speakers and testimonies, as well as song and prayer for an end to abortion. Jill Page, Director of Specialized Services at Urban Family Council, has been attending the rally for years. "This observance gives Philadelphians a chance to remember and mourn the thousands of lives lost to abortion each year in our city. We hope that many will join us in standing against this evil and for the value of every human life from conception until natural death." The rally is sponsored by Urban Family Council, Generation Life, the Pro-life Union and Alpha Pregnancy Center.

Urban Family Council is a non-profit organization that exists to build healthy families by providing education about, and advocating for, life, marriage and family. They offer dynamic, age-appropriate pro-life education programs for children, teens and adults. Call today to schedule a program for your group.
